

Michael de Pinna

Apart from being known as South Africa's favourite yuppie, "Yebo Gogo," Michael has performed internationally at the Lido in Paris, Sun City, and countless other cabaret stages.

His roles in musicals include, Fagin in "Oliver," Daddy Warbucks in "Annie" and The Pirate King in "Pirates of Penzance" and in Edith Piaf "No Regrets."

He has appeared in plays on stages throughout South Africa, - Abe Goldman in, "Beau Jeste," for which he received a nomination, - The Jackal in "Birds of Paradise," and in March 2014, Walter Gold "In "Twilight of the Golds" at the Auto and General Theatre on the Square.

He is an accredited film and TV actor, appearing in "Egoli," "Erfsondes," "Rhodes," "There's a Zulu on my stoep," and "The Algiers murders."

He presented his own 13 part series on SABC 2 called "Phantom Hitchhiker."

Michael is one of the Presenters of "Tongue in Cheek SABC 3's new Talk show due to make a comeback in 2015.

Currently he co-hosts a radio show called "Whispers" with Carolyn Steyn on Radio Today.